Volteface director says non-profit has shifted UK public opinion of cannabis by over 10%

Volteface director of external affairs Paul North sat down with Proactive at the Cannabis Europa: Transatlantic Forum in Toronto.

Volteface is a four year old UK-based advocacy organization which is focusing on helping to develop alternatives to current drug policies in the UK. North says the non-profit has shifted UK public opinion of cannabis by over 10%, and is looking to help create a sensibly regulated cannabis market by following the Canadian model.
