Full interview: Adamas Finance Asia's Harmony Capital 'delivers' on promises to investors

Harmony Capital, of Adamas Finance Asia Limited (LON:ADAM) says market conditions for its largest investment, a quarry in China, are set for a strong period of growth following the asset going into production on December 27th. Managing Partner of the investment manager Suresh Withana tells Proactive London it was worth working straight through Christmas to come good on his promises to investors last year. News here too on why owning and controlling an asset (Harmony has 85% of the business) makes all the difference and a whisper of possible future dividends.
